

Approaching the Path of the Great Perfection

Sunday
15th November
7pm – 9pm

A discussion of Dzogchen in the general context of Buddhism, and how we in the modern world engage practically with this immense legacy of insight and liberation.

Jakob Leschly

Jakob was born in Denmark where he took refuge with Ven. Kalu Rinpoche in 1974. He travelled to India and Nepal in the mid-1970s, studying under eminent lamas like Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche, Dudjom Rinpoche, Tulku Pema Wangyal and Chagdud Rinpoche. Jakob completed a three-year retreat in France in 1984, and has since worked as translator, interpreter, and instructor. Since 1993, he has served Dzongsar Khyentse Rinpoche and the Siddhartha's Intent sangha.

australia.siddharthasintent.org

Cost: $10 / class. Donations (dana) for the teacher gratefully accepted.

www.dharmacentre.org.nz